United Way of Greater Portland	Racial Equity Panel presented by United Way of Greater Portland	9/17/2020	4PM	Virtual	Join us for a discussion on the inequities in education and workforce systems and how they affect communities of color today. Education, workforce training, and related issues are crucial tactics in addressing employment, income, and wealth disparities that preclude too many people of color from economic and family security. With input and guidance from our Diversity Action Council, United Way of Greater Portland will convene a panel of community experts and those who have experienced these challenges first-hand to help us begin to identify potential solutions for remedying persistent problems.
